ANSWERS

Scoring

The results are intended to help parents understand the importance of raising children to be financially successful. It is expected most will fall below a score of 10.

Scores below 8

Most will fall into this category. Your score only has relevance if you decide not to take action. Change means you are breaking the cycle of poverty that has enslaved so many from one generation to the next.

Scores of 8-10

You are on the right track. You are only a few good habits away from being in the elite company of other Financially Successful Parents.

Congratulations! You are doing what you need to do in order to help your children build the foundation for financial success that will pay dividends to them for the rest of their lives.

Which Rich Habits Should You Work on First?

Rich Habits #3 Self-Improvement

Require that your children read at least one non-school-related educational book per month. This habit will carry over into your child's adulthood and help elevate them above their peers.

Rich Habits #5 Build Long Lasting Relationships

Know your children's friends and parents. Require them to call everyone they know on their birthday. Have your children send thank you cards to anyone who cared enough to help them in life, no matter how minor.

Rich Habits #2 Goal Setting

Teach your children the importance of setting goals. Setting daily, weekly, monthly, annual and long-term goals help put your children on financial success autopilot in life. Goals create passion and passion is the air that financial success breathes.

Tom Corley understands the difference between being rich and poor. At age 9 his family went from being multimillionaires to broke in just one night. He understands the challenges adversity can present but is here to share the good news that we have more control over our luck than we may think!

For five years, Tom studied the daily activities of 233 wealthy people and 128 people living in poverty. He discovered there is a difference the size of the Grand Canyon between the daily habits of the wealthy and poor. During his research he identified over 200 daily activities that separated the "haves" from the "have nots". The culmination of his research can be found in his #1 bestselling book, Rich Habits – The Daily Success Habits of Wealthy Individuals.

Tom is a CPA, CFP and holds a Master's Degree in Taxation. He is also President of Cerefice and Company, CPAs, one of the top financial firms in New Jersey.

Tom has shared his insights on The Dave Ramsey Show, WABC, WCCO, KOA, KDKA, and KKOB and more than 1,000 other radio stations, a host of print media publications and many TV shows including CBS Nightly News and Yahoo! Finance's #1 show, Financially Fit with award-winning host Farnoosh Torabi (Today Show, Kelly and Michael, The View).
